

I support Indiana's phone privacy law and am opposed to any weakeing of this law which protects the private individual from harrassing phone calls from any caller whether there is a business realtionship or not. If this law is changed and I am allowed to be harrassed I will disconnect my phone services. I do have a right to privacy and non harrassement. I pay for my phone service and should be allowed to say who and when I can be called.